

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Friends of free enterprise at home and abroad recognize that economic freedom is essential to political freedom and personal liberty; and,

WHEREAS, Free enterprise has been a major factor in the progress of our great nation and in the prosperity of its citizens; and,

WHEREAS, Free enterprise has been acknowledged by peoples throughout the world as the economic system which creates material wealth and abundance, while safeguarding the principles of individual freedom; and,

WHEREAS, Forces of socialism and communism understand that their own economic systems cannot compete with free enterprise, and that they must therefore seek to destroy it; and,

WHEREAS, October 3, 1980, has been designated American Enterprise Day in observance of the significance of the free enterprise system in the lives of a free people:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Friday, October 3, 1980, as in South Dakota, and urge all citizens to observe this day in an appropriate fashion.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-ninth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty
